

National Advanced Certificate in Local Government (NACLAA)

This is an advanced certificate that requires the completion of a first level certificate or equivalent. This advanced certificate places greater emphasis on leadership and decision making and is intended to develop or enhance leadership capabilities.

While courses are discrete, students will be encouraged to draw from many sources. Students will be expected to engage in more rigorous experience which will include, among other things, the expectation for independent research and critical thinking.

Courses:

- Policy Planning and Program Evaluation
- Citizen Engagement and Consultation
- Sustainable Communities
