

Executive Certificate in Local Government

This unique 10 unit online program covers challenges and emerging practices for service excellence, strategic alignment, collaboration imperatives, policy making, council/staff relations, the illusive public interest and the prevailing effectiveness/efficiency contradictions.

Participants will be ready to make a significant leadership difference in their organization with frameworks to examine complexities, tools to creatively find solutions, techniques to enhance personal leadership capacity. Long after the program you will have a network of exemplary leader's throughout Canada.

Program Facilitator - Gordon MacIntosh, PhD & CLGM has 36 years of executive, consultant and educator roles in local and regional government. Dr. McIntosh's current research is focused on the situational leadership success of Chief Administrative Officers.

Chief Administrative Officers, senior managers and elected officials are invited to review the eligibility criteria and apply for this national dialogue.